

DETERMINING HOUSEHOLD SIZE AND INCOME – AT-A-GLANCE

Household (Family)	Family Planning Services (determined for ALL clients)	SelectPlan for Women (eligibility screening)
SIZE	Determined by total # of people living in the household who are supported by the income of that household. Size: _____	Household is defined as the applicant, spouse, children and stepchildren Children and stepchildren are included if they are under 18 not emancipated, and/or over 18 if dependent. If a child or stepchild is receiving a cash grant like SSI or TANF they are not to be included as a member of the household Size: _____
(Gross) INCOME	Includes all sources of income of all household members (above). *Monthly Income: $ _____	Includes only income of the applicant, spouse, and dependent children and stepchildren, minus deductions. *Monthly Income: $ _____
	This income should be reported via PCN and consistent with the range circled on the Eligibility Determination Form.	 If this income is at or below 185% of poverty (and if client meets other eligibility screening criteria), then client should apply for SelectPlan for Women coverage.

Source: TRAINING 3 (2008). Developed for Family Health Council of Central Pennsylvania.